†Original notice of the question was received in Hindi.

THE MINISTER OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT (SHRI SHANTA KUMAR): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) The Ministry of Rural Development is implementing, inter-alia, the Self Employment Scheme of the Swarnjayanti Gram SwarozgarYojana (SGSY), the Wage Employment Scheme of the Sampoorna Gramin Rozgar Yojana (SGRY) and the Rural Housing Scheme of the Indira Awaas Yojana (IAY) exclusively for the benefit of BPL persons living in rural areas. The Ministry of Consumer Affairs, Food and Public Distribution is implementing theTargeted Public Distribution Scheme (TPDS) and the Antyodaya Anna Yojana (AAYJfbr the benefit of BPL families. These Schemes are regularly reviewed. The Ministry of Rural Development reviews its Programmes through Meetings of the Performance Review Committee, the Area Officers' Scheme, Monthly Progress Reports and discussions with the State Governments and Union Territory Administrations.

(c)-The number of beneficiaries under the Programmes during the year 2601-2002, State-wise is given in the Statement enclosed. (Seebelow)

(d) Yes, Sir.

(e) The Ministry of Rural Development conducts the Below Poverty Line (BPL) Census in the rural areas of the country in the beginning of each Five Year Plan period, through the State Governments and Union Territory Administrations, for identification of persons living Below the Poverty Line. The methodology and criteria for identification of the BPL households in the rural areas are finalised taking into account the recommendations of an Expert Group constituted for the purpose. The beneficiaries of the Programmes of the Ministry are identified by the Gram Sabhas from the BPL list, which itself is approved by them.

An Expert Group was set up to advise on the methodology and Survey Schedule to be employed during the next BPL Census which is due to be conducted in the current year.The Report of the Expert Group, which has reviewed the criteria adopted in the previous BPL Census and has considered the views of the State Governments/Union Territory Administrations in this regard, has been received and further action to conduct the BPL Census has been initiated.
